Under the Kneehill Regional FCSS Agreement, the FCSS Board prepares the annual budget and provides a copy to each participating municipality for review and approval. At their September 14, 2021, meeting, the FCSS Board approved to increase the municipal requisition by 2.7% which will cover the cost-of-living increase in 2022. When this item was first presented at the October 12, Council meeting, Kneehill County's approved contribution to FCSS for 2022 was $53,806.00, which has now been amended to $50,140.00 by utilizing census population numbers instead of the Alberta Government estimated population counts.

Decision:

Council approved the amended Kneehill Regional Family and Community Support Services (FCSS) 2022 Budget and Allocations as presented.
